To the Editor:

Senator Fulbright has made a grave mistake! In fact, he has made several mistakes lately which have caused a wide breach in Democratic circles in particular and the Liberal establishment in general. If it was his intent to win back Liberal support with the Red China hearings, he has compounded the error completely.

The Arkansas (Fellow) traveler grossly under-estimated the reading habits of a few million anti-Communist U.S. citizens. The members of the John Birch Society, the Young Americans for Freedom, various state conservative clubs, subscribers to Human Events, Dan Smoot Forum, etc. ad nauseum; all do their homework. These informed Americans know the witnesses!

Now let us get down to cases. If the less-informed populace thinks it is merely a coincidence that two of our leading educators, experts on Asian Policy, agree on U.N. admission of Red China and a firm U. S. support of L.L.W. (Lyndon's Limited War), then hold on to your hats!

This writer is not familiar with Prof. A. Doake Barnette of Columbia University but we have had enough poor judgments from that hallowed halls seat of Asian studies. Professor John Fairbank was the next objective (?) witness for the committee. Is it not strange that Prof. Fairbank and his wife were mentioned frequently during the 1951-52 hearings of the House Committee on Un-American Activities? This was the session which exposed the sinister dealings of the Institute of Pacific Relations. Yes folks, we had Far East experts, then, too!

CPYRGHT

Alger. Hiss, Owen Lattimore, Laughlin Currie, Agnes Smedley, Edgar Snow (Sat. Evening Post), Prof. Benjamin K. Schwartz (Harvard School of Russian Studies), John Stewart Service, etc.

A deposition by C.I.A. Officer Cyle H. Munson was entered into the record of the hearings as follows:

"Mr. Davies (John P. Jr.) said that he would be perfectly confident to put Prof. and Mrs. Fairbank at the head of such a unit (special branch of C.I.A.) charged with producing such materials. He said that he was aware that they were considered Communists by some un-informed persons, but that they were not Communists, 'but only very politically sophisticated.'"

For more details on this subject, I recommend Dr. Robert Morris' book, "No wonder We Are Losing" and Dan Smoots' "The Invisible Government," both available at American Opinion, Belmont, Mass.

Remember the baseball adage; you can't tell the players without a score-card!"
